FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
2007 DEC - 5 A 11:20

Dear Mr. Jordan:

I have received on November 23, 2007 your correspondence (Re: MUR 5953) dated 20 November 2007.

I do not believe that there has been any violation of any federal law or associated FEC regulation as claimed by the complainant.

The following statement is on numerous pages of the Federal Election Commission website, www.fec.gov, which was relied on for completeness and accuracy:

Notice: Reports and statements filed by political committees may be inspected and copied by anyone. The names and addresses of individual contributors, however, may not be sold or used for any commercial purpose or to solicit any type of contribution or donation, such as political or charitable contributions. 2 U.S.C. §438(a)(4); 11 CFR 104.15. This restriction applies to Federal reports and statements. Any person who violates this restriction is subject to the penalties of 2 U.S.C. §437g.

In full compliance with the above notice on the FEC website, the letter (noted by the complainant) did not solicit any type of contribution or donation, was not used for any commercial purpose, and addresses from FEC data bases were not sold, therefore it is not believed that any law or regulation has been violated. Furthermore, the noted letter was in no way related to any election campaign; it was solely related to a civic and non-partisan issue, namely the federal funding for the Iraq war.

I look forward to receiving your prompt notice of dismissal of this case, MUR 5953.

Sincerely,

Richard Andrews

11 CFR Part 104.15

§ 104.15 Sale or use restriction (2 U.S.C. 438(a)(4)).

(a) Any information copied, or otherwise obtained, from any report or statement, or any copy, reproduction, or publication thereof, filed under the Act, shall not be sold or used by any person for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for any commercial purpose, except that the name and address of any political committee may be used to solicit contributions from such committee.

(b) For purposes of 11 CFR 104.15, soliciting contributions includes soliciting any type of contribution or donation, such as political or charitable contributions.

(c) The use of information, which is copied or otherwise obtained from reports filed under 11 CFR part 104, in newspapers, magazines, books or other similar communications is permissible as long as the principal purpose of such communications is not to communicate any contributor information listed on such reports for the purpose of soliciting contributions or for other commercial purposes.
